Members of Emergency Preparedness
Advisory Commission

Regular Meeting of July 2, 2007

WEBSITE COMMISSION INFORMATION

Recommendation:

That the Commission review and/or revise and approve website information.

Background:

As you know, the City's website contains information on each of the Commissions. The attached information is a draft of what we will place on the website once approved. Please review it and make any changes that you feel are appropriate. All of the information contained on the attached roster is considered public record and is available to any member of the public asking to view your commission application, however, the information placed on the website is done so on a voluntary basis. In order to be as available to the public as possible, most of our commissioners are happy to provide their contact information on the website, however, some have chosen not to publish their home telephone number in that format; when that is the case, we use the City Hall phone number in lieu of the home number. Publishing of your email address is also optional.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephen R. Burrell
City Manager

The Emergency Preparedness Advisory Commission advises and makes recommendations relative to the preparedness of the City and its populace; preparing (for Council approval) an up-to-date emergency preparedness plan, and assisting in the promotion of emergency preparedness, the coordination of neighborhood volunteers for emergency response and the preparation of grant application.

Members are appointed to staggered four-year terms. The Emergency Preparedness Advisory Commission meets regularly in the City Council Chambers at 7:00 p.m. on the first Monday of every month
