Department of Community Resources Activity Report for April 2004

The Department of Community Resources has been involved in the following activities for the month of April 2004:

Recreation Programming:

Registration for the spring session of classes and programs continued steadily.

Spring Break Day Camps:

Spring Break Day Camp, a program for children 6-11 years of age. Day Campers participated in a variety of recreational activities at South Park. A team of experienced Camp Counselors led participants through an action-packed schedule of events that included sports, group games, arts and crafts, skit performances, scavenger hunts, and an excursion to Surf City Skate Zone in Huntington Beach.

Teen Extreme Day Camp, a program for youth 11-14 years of age joined the younger camp for select combined activities, and participated in programs designed specifically for young teens in the South Park Teen Room.

Corky Bell's Basketball Camp:

Corky's Spring Basketball Camp focused on technique, drills, and game performance. Participants aged 6-12 received individual instruction and coaching from a dynamic instructor who encouraged them during skill development exercises and game play.

Spring Break Drama Camp

Campers enjoyed an imaginative week of acting and drama. Theatre games, improvisation, and acting scenes brought out the childhood actor in young campers.

Special Events:

Hermosa Beach Tennis Classic

West Coast Tennis, held a USTA Sanctioned Tennis tournament open to youth, adults, singles, and doubles. This was the fourth year the tournament was played in Hermosa Beach with a total of 300 registrants. The tournament, directed by Kevin Brady, utilized all Community Center tennis courts and Kelly courts.

Spring Eggstravaganza Egg Hunt

This event, held at Noble Park and 14th Street beach area featured festivities that included Face Painting, Crafts, Polaroid photo's with the Bunny, Magician/Comedian, and the Egg Hunt. Attendance totaled approximately 1500 children and families.

Richstone Family Pier-to-Pier Walk

The 17th annual walk-a-thon was held April 24. Participants met at the base of the Manhattan Beach Pier and walked to the Hermosa Pier and back. Approximately 500 participants enjoyed the walk in support of the Richstone Family Center.

CBVA Volleyball Tournament

The California Beach Volleyball Association hosted both Men's A and Woman's A one-day tournaments on the north side of the Pier. Tournament Director, Chris Brown, coordinated the tournaments.
